General information for residents and park owners

1. An agreement is considered frustrated (other than as a result of a breach of the agreement) if the rented property, or a substantial portion of the rented property has:
  - been destroyed or rendered uninhabitable; or
  - ceased to be lawfully usable for residential purposes; or
  - been acquired by compulsory process.

A resident may give a park owner* notice that they will be terminating the agreement immediately if the agreement has been frustrated as described above.

NB: IF A RESIDENT ISSUES THIS NOTICE TO A PARK OWNER* BECAUSE OF FRUSTRATION OF THE AGREEMENT AND THE AGREEMENT IS NOT GENUINELY FRUSTRATED, THE RESIDENT MAY BE LIABLE TO COMPENSATE THE PARK OWNER*.

2. When the resident vacates the rented property, they should:
  - leave it in a reasonable condition and in a reasonably clean state. If it is not, the park owner* may recover from the bond, or from the resident directly, the costs of cleaning the rented property, removing any rubbish, and so on;
  - provide their forwarding address to the park owner*, as set out in Section 89 of the Residential Parks Act 2007;
  - ensure that they leave any keys or devices that have been provided to them at the beginning of the agreement with the park owner*;
  - if necessary, notify the electricity, gas, and telephone companies, etc so that any new residents do not use gas, electricity and the telephone on the former resident's accounts.
3. If possible, agree on how the bond should be refunded. If you do agree, both of you should complete and sign the residential park bond refund form and lodge it with Consumer & Business Services. Make sure that the resident's forwarding address is included on the form so that all or part of the bond, or any future correspondence, can be sent to them. If an agreement cannot be reached, you should contact Consumer and Business Services on 131 882
4. You should retain a copy of this notice.
