

Through the Lens – 2017 Seniors Card photo competition and exhibition

1. The Seniors Card photo competition is open to valid South Australian Seniors Card members.
2. All information detailing how to enter forms part of these terms and conditions. Submission of an entry will be taken to mean acceptance of these terms and conditions.
3. Entries of a photograph no more than 3MB must include the entrant's name (including preferred name), title, Seniors Card number, email address and telephone number, and also an image title and brief description (refer to point 8 below for further information). All entries must be received by 25 August 2017 and there is a limit of five entries per person. If more than five entries are received, only the first five entries will be eligible. Seniors Card members are encouraged to use the online submission tool, available on the Seniors Card website (www.sa.gov.au/seniorscard/photo). In addition to the online submission method, entrants can submit their entries by posting their entry on a USB or disc to PO Box 196, Rundle Mall Adelaide 5000. Please note, hard copy photographs will not be accepted.
4. Up to six winners in up to six categories will be chosen by the judging panel for public display at the Seniors Card photo exhibition at the City Library, Rundle Mall during October 2017. Finalists and winning entrants may be asked to resubmit entries for printing purposes (a higher quality image may be required). Winners will be announced at a launch event on Wednesday 4 October 2017. One overall winner will be chosen and announced at the event. Other entrants may be invited to attend the event.
5. The judging panel will comprise representatives of the Office for the Ageing, sponsors and other invited judges. The judges' decision is final and no correspondence shall be entered into. The judges reserve the right to redirect into another category if deemed more appropriate. The judges reserve the right to select additional finalists and/or winners outside of the set categories.
6. Each entrant agrees that their entry may be subject to a people's choice vote, whereby people can view all eligible entries via an online gallery and then vote for their favourite image.
7. Winners and finalists will take home a large ready-to-hang print of their photo. In addition, the overall winning entry, including the entrant's name, will be published on the front cover of the 2018 edition of the Seniors Card Discount Directory, Your Lifestyle Guide, which will be available to over 365,000 Seniors Card members from December 2017 until December 2018.
8. To participate in this photo competition, entrants must submit an image file with an image title (no more than 100 characters) and a brief description of the photograph (no more than 500 characters). Photos should be of suitable quality and resolution for print publication. Each entrant assures the Office for the Ageing that: (a) all entered photographs are the work of the individual submitting them (b) they are the owner of the photograph and description; (c) the entrant has the permission of the people shown in the entered photograph to include them in the photograph and that they have no objections to the photograph being published or used in any medium for any purpose; and (d) entering the photograph and description into this competition on the basis that the photographs may then be published or used for any other purpose, will not breach any person's rights (including copyright or moral rights).
9. Each entrant agrees that their name and the photos entered into the competition may be reproduced, published, transmitted or otherwise communicated to the public in association with the further use and reproduction of the photographs.
10. Entries must be the work of the individual submitting them (must be a current South Australian Seniors Card member). At the time of submitting their entry, entrants will be asked to confirm that they took the photo. In addition to this, entries must not have been published elsewhere or have won a prize in any other competition, or have been submitted to any competitor or any other entity for publication and will not be so submitted or published at any time before the expiry of 12 months after the end of the competition period without the written approval of the Office for the Ageing. It is the responsibility of each entrant to ensure that no element of their entry or its publication as contemplated by these terms infringes the copyright of any third party or any laws. Entries will be judged on which are the most original, interesting and appropriate for publications and exhibition.

11. Copyright in all submissions to the competition remains with the respective entrants. However, each entrant agrees to allow publication of any or all entries in any Office for the Ageing publication, its websites and/or in any promotional, marketing or advertising material.
12. Should the submitted images be used in any future Office for the Ageing publications, the name of the person submitting it will be acknowledged in the publication.
13. Illegible, incomplete or defaced entries (including entries with a vignette border) will not be accepted. No responsibility can be accepted for lost entries and proof of sending will not be accepted as proof of receipt. Entries must not be sent through agencies or third parties.
14. All entries may be used in the 2018 edition of the Seniors Card Discount Directory or any other publication produced or funded by the Office for the Ageing, at any time.
15. All entrants release the Office for the Ageing from any and all causes of action, losses, liability, damage, expense (including legal expenses) cost or charge suffered, sustained or in any way incurred by the winner as a result of any loss or damage to any physical property of the winner, or any injury to or death of any person arising out of, or related to, or in any way connected with the competition.
