Disability Information Service

For assistance with enquiries and information about disability services in South Australia, or to make a referral:

Ph: 1300 786 117
(9am to 5pm weekdays), or
Email: disabilityinfo@dfc.sa.gov.au.

Website

The South Australian Government has a comprehensive website that includes information about disability services, referrals, concessions, service directories etc.

If you have access to the web, visit:
www.sa.gov.au/disability

If you can't locate the information you need and you think it should be part of the website, let us know (via email to disabilityinfo@dfc.sa.gov.au) and we will request that it is considered for the website.

Disability Services Information Sheets

Over 100 information sheets are available free of charge from Disability Services offices or by calling 1300 786 117. A wide range of subjects is covered.

For a copy of the full list call us or visit our website: www.sa.gov.au/disability.

DFC Library & Information Service— Disability Collection

This collection has books and a wide range of other specialist resources (such as kits, DVDs, journals) that cover many aspects of disability.

People who use the library include people with disability, parents/carers, specialists, GPs and other service providers.

Resources can be forwarded to your local Disability Services office or posted out if you live in a remote location. Most services are free of charge.
