8. SIGN HERE - IT IS AN OFFENCE PUNISHABLE BY IMPRISONMENT TO MAKE A FALSE OR MISLEADING STATEMENT.

- Any learner's permit, P1 or P2 provisional licence or driver's licence issued will not be valid if false or misleading details are given, or false evidence supplied.
- Any learner's permit or P1 or P2 provisional licence or driver's licence obtained when a person is disqualified or prevented from holding or obtaining a learner's permit or P1 or P2 provisional licence or driver's licence is void and of no effect.
- A renewal of a P1 or P2 provisional licence or driver's licence paid after the expiry date will:
 - up to 6 months: expiry date not altered;
 - over 6 months: additional licence administration fee.
- If a learner's permit, P1 or P2 provisional licence, probationary licence or driver's licence is cancelled, either as a result of a disqualification imposed under the Motor Vehicles Act or any other Act, the unexpired portion of the permit/licence is forfeited. The Motor Vehicles Regulations specifically preclude the issue of a refund on the unexpired portion, where a licence has been cancelled, and is essentially part of the penalty to encourage safe driving.
- In order to progress to a P2 provisional licence you will need to successfully complete the Hazard Perception Test and have held your P1 provisional licence for at least 12 months. If you have incurred up to and including 3 demerit points in the 12 months immediately preceding the date of your application to progress to a P2 provisional licence, you must successfully undertake a Driver Awareness Course or hold your P1 provisional licence for 24 months. The holder of a P2 provisional licence is not required to display P-Plates whilst driving. All other provisional licence conditions continue to apply.

I HEREBY DECLARE THAT I HAVE TRUTHFULLY COMPLETED THIS FORM. No personal information will be disclosed except as is required or authorised by law.
