

ACCESS TO INFORMATION FROM THE SOUTH AUSTRALIAN REGISTERS OF MOTOR VEHICLES AND DRIVERS' LICENCES

Provisions under the Motor Vehicles Act 1959 ("the Act") permit the release of information from the register of motor vehicles and the register of drivers' licences ("the registers") under certain circumstances.

The Registrar of Motor Vehicles ("the Registrar") has statutory responsibility for the information in these registers. Consequently the Registrar is obligated to protect the information supplied by motor vehicle owners and driver licence holders, when meeting their obligations under the Act.

Information released by the Registrar remains the property of the Registrar, and you are bound by the same restrictions on release of the information as is the Registrar.

The registers contain information relating to registration of vehicles and the licensing of drivers. This information is privileged under the provisions of the Act and the State Information Privacy Principles.

In particular:

- Section 139D of the Motor Vehicles Act 1959); and
- The Motor Vehicles Regulations 2010 Part 98; and

Significant penalties exist for inappropriate use and unauthorised release of information.

The Terms and Conditions of Deed of Agency includes requirements for keeping the registers secure. You are required to abide by these requirements.
