Guide to Assessing Eligibility for Authorisation

The Registrar of Motor Vehicles may consider a person to be suitable if the person:

- (a) Is of or above the age of eighteen years;
- (b) Has not been found guilty of an offence involving theft, deception, fraud or dishonesty, other than a first offence of simple larceny that did not involve a motor vehicle component;
- (c) Has not been found guilty of any indictable offence;
- (d) Has not been suspended or disqualified from practicing or carrying on an occupation, trade, or business under a law of this State, Commonwealth, another State or Territory of the Commonwealth;
- (e) Has not been found guilty of any offence that would indicate the person is not a suitable person to be delegated under the Motor Vehicles Act 1959;
- (f) Is not an unsuitable person for any other reason the Registrar determines.

An application may be refused at the Registrar's absolute discretion.

If you been found guilty or found guilty without a conviction of any of the above, you may not be entitled to be authorised.
