

Applicants for driver accreditation are required to know the following information.

- An accredited driver is required to understand their legal obligations under the Passenger Transport Act 1994, the Passenger Transport Regulations 2009 and the Australian Road Rules.

In particular (but not limited to):

- An accredited driver cannot refuse a passenger with a guide dog, or discriminate against a person because of the person's sex, race, disability, age, marital status, sexuality or pregnancy.
- An accredited driver must observe the laws that relate to safe driving and must not have any concentration of alcohol in his/her blood, or any presence of illicit drugs, while driving a public passenger vehicle.
- An accredited driver cannot drive a public passenger vehicle if their driver's licence is expired, or has been suspended, cancelled or disqualified.
- An accredited driver must advise the Accreditation and Licensing Centre (ALC) within two business days of the laying of a charge for an offence.
- An accredited driver must advise the ALC within two business days of a finding by a court of law that you have been found guilty or convicted of an offence.
- An accredited driver must advise the ALC within seven business days of a change to their medical condition and/or medication.

Please sign and date this document once you have read and understood the above information.

Given name/s:	Last name:
---------------	------------

Drivers licence number:	Date
-------------------------	------

Signature
