HOW TO CANCEL THE REGISTRATION ON YOUR MOTOR VEHICLE

To cancel a South Australian registration you must surrender the number plates to a Service SA centre. If your vehicle has now been re-registered interstate a copy of the Interstate Certificate of Registration must be provided. If you are not the last registered owner applying to cancel the registration a Procuration Order is required to be submitted with this application form.

SURRENDER OF NUMBER PLATES

- In most cases, the number plate(s) must be surrendered with this application. Penalties for failure to surrender plates can be $2,500. For exceptions, ask a Service SA Centre Officer or contact a Service SA Centre on telephone 13 10 84. N.B. If the vehicle is later re-registered after a cancellation and surrender of number plate(s) a new plate number will be issued.

STOLEN VEHICLE

- If your vehicle has been stolen, the “VEHICLE HAS BEEN STOLEN” section on the front of this form must be COMPLETED AND AUTHORISED BY AN APPROVED SERVICE SA CENTRE OFFICER.

REFUNDS

- A refund is calculated on your vehicle's annual registration fee.
- A pro-rata refund is provided on the Compulsory Third Party Insurance premium.
- A cancellation fee is deducted from any refund due.
- All refunds will be forwarded by cheque.
- A refund will not be issued on the cancellation of an Unregistered Vehicle Permit.
- No refund is issued on the stamp duty on the Compulsory Third Party insurance or the Emergency Services Levy.
- The Administration fee charged for a renewal of registration or a new registration is not refundable.

A statutory declaration is only required in certain circumstances, for example if the date of request for cancellation is not the same as the application date. For further clarification, please call Service SA on 13 10 84.
