Input Tax Credit Entitlement

In relation to any entitlement to claim back the GST component of the CTP insurance premium. Under the Commonwealth GST Law*, this is known as an "Input Tax Credit (ITC)". Guidance on how to respond to that question is provided below. However, if you are unsure you should consult your accountant or the Australian Taxation Office about your particular circumstances.

Step 1 Is the vehicle used for business (including Government and non-profit organisations) purposes?
If Yes – continue with Step 2.
If No – answer NO to the question below and pay the lower "No ITC Entitlement" total fee (if offered) for the selected period.

Step 2 Is the Registered Owner of this vehicle registered (or required to be registered) for GST?
If Yes – continue with Step 3.
If No – answer NO to the question below and pay the lower "No ITC Entitlement" total fee (if offered) for the selected period.

Step 3 Is the Registered Owner of this vehicle entitled to claim an ITC in relation to the CTP insurance premium?
If Yes – answer YES to the question below and pay the higher "ITC Entitled" total fee (if offered) for the selected period.
If No – answer NO to the question below and pay the lower "No ITC Entitlement" total fee (if offered) for the selected period.

The "No ITC Entitlement" fee is only available where the vehicle is NOT used for any purpose that entitles the owner to an ITC.

What happens if I pay the incorrect premium?
 It is your responsibility to pay the correct premium. If you are or become aware that a greater premium is payable, you must notify the insurer in writing. A failure to do so may incur a penalty. This penalty is in addition to any premium differential payable. If you breach any term of the Policy of Insurance, Section 124A (2) of the Motor Vehicles Act 1959 allows the insurer, by action in a court, to recover from you a portion of the money paid or any costs incurred by the insurer in respect of a liability incurred by you. If you pay the incorrect premium of the vehicle is used for a purpose other than that stated in your application, you may be liable to recovery action if a claim is paid on your policy.

*GST Law means that Commonwealth legislation: A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999.

If you have answered YES to all 3 questions, you must answer YES and pay the "ITC Entitled" fee (if offered).
