

WHAT THIS FORM IS USED FOR

- The first time you apply for a South Australian Driver's Licence or Learner's Permit.

WHAT YOU WILL NEED

- Evidence of your age, identity and your residence as outlined in point 2 below. Refer to MR583 Evidence of Identity brochure for more details.
You may need to provide a medical or eyesight certificate, see point 5 below.

READ THIS INFORMATION FIRST

- 1. You must be 16 or over to apply for a learner's permit.
2. You must provide proof of your age, and also evidence of your identity. This information may be confirmed with the issuer or official record holder. Refer to Evidence of Identity brochure (MR583) for more information.
3. Make sure that you give all information requested and answer all questions asked. You must personally sign the application.
4. Ensure that you give details of any disability or illness, including particulars of any medication. A medical certificate may be required.
5. You may be requested to supply evidence that any illness or disability does not impair your ability to safely drive a motor vehicle.
6. During the term of a learner's permit or driver's licence, you must give in writing to the Registrar of Motor Vehicles, details of any disability or illness that may affect your fitness to drive a motor vehicle.
7. Any learner's permit or driver's licence issued will not be valid if false or misleading details are given, or false evidence is supplied.
8. Any learner's permit or driver's licence obtained when a person is disqualified or prevented from holding or obtaining a learner's permit or driver's licence is void and of no effect.
9. Interstate Licence must be surrendered before the issue of a South Australian Licence.
10. Overseas Licence must be surrendered before the issue of a South Australian Licence (an exemption may apply).
11. If a learner's permit, provisional licence, probationary licence or driver's licence is cancelled, either as a result of a disqualification imposed under the Motor Vehicles Act or any other Act, the unexpired portion of the permit/licence is forfeited. The Motor Vehicles Regulations specifically preclude the issue of a refund on the unexpired portion, where a permit/licence has been cancelled, and is essentially part of the penalty to encourage safe driving.
12. No personal information will be disclosed except as is required or authorised by law.

ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS ONLY. PHOTOCOPIES ARE NOT ACCEPTABLE. ONCE SIGHTED, ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS ARE RETURNED TO THE APPLICANT.
