READ THIS FIRST

1. This form is used to change recreational registration ownership and renew registration for a vessel fitted with an engine that has previously been registered in South Australia.
2. Must be registered in the name of a 'Natural Person' or 'Body Corporate'.
3.  A Hull Identification Number (HIN) must be affixed to your vessel by a Boat Code Agent to complete the registration. If your vessel does not have a HIN, a temporary registration certificate valid for 21 days will be issued. An information leaflet on Boat Code requirements and a list of authorised Boat Code Agents are available from any Service SA Customer Service Centre.
4. Please use 'BLOCK' letters and complete the relevant sections.
5. The new owner of a vessel must provide Proof of Ownership. This may be a signed and dated statement from the previous owner; Recreational Registration Certificate in your name issued in another State; Commercial Vessel Registration Certificate in your name; or Statutory Declaration signed by a Justice of the Peace.
6. If you wish to be allocated a special club number an Application for a Change of Registration Number (MR153) must be lodged with this application.
7. If you wish, the vessel can be registered in joint names but full details must be supplied for each registration holder. A vessel cannot be registered to a person who is less than 16 years old.
8. Each registration holder must provide Evidence of Identity and, for a person, Evidence of Age. Refer to the Evidence of Identity leaflet (MR 583) available at Service SA Customer Service Centres or www.service.sa.gov.au
9. Payment – Cheque or money order should be made payable to Department for Infrastructure and Transport and marked "Not Negotiable". Credit card payment by MasterCard or Visa is also accepted at Service SA Customer Service Centres.
10. The information provided may be used to update records relating to you under the Motor Vehicles Act 1959.
11. The information provided on this form is protected according to the South Australian Government's Information Privacy Principles, but may be subject to access under the Freedom of Information Act 1991. The Act gives a person the right to be given access to information held by the Government in accordance with the Act.
