CONDITIONS

1. This document once signed on the reverse of this page by or on behalf of the Registrar and the applicant (“the owner”) constitutes an agreement between the Registrar and the owner for the allotment of a number plate to a vehicle owned by the owner (“the vehicle”) and authority to display the number plates on the vehicle, or reservation of a number plate for future allotment to a vehicle owned by the owner, for the period of time set out in the schedule (“the term”) to which agreement the reverse page is the schedule.
2. The Registrar may at any time and at his sole discretion by notice in writing to the owner terminate this agreement and revoke the authority to display the number plates, and shall at the option of the owner:
  - (a) allot to the vehicle a new number selected by the owner and approved by the Registrar, or
  - (b) refund to the owner an amount bearing the same proportion to the agreement fee in the schedule as the unexpired portion of the term bears to the term and shall allot a new number to the vehicle (if applicable) and issue new ordinary plates for the vehicle.
3. If the agreement is for reservation of the number, subject to Clause 2 hereof:-
  - (1) the Registrar shall not, during the term, enter into an agreement with any other person to allot the number to a vehicle:
  - (2) at any time during the term the Registrar shall on the application of the owner allot the number to a vehicle of which the owner is the South Australian registered owner and remaining conditions of this agreement shall then apply:
  - (3) the owner may by written notice to the Registrar authorise transfer of his rights under this agreement to any other person who shall be subject in the exercise of those rights to the conditions set out herein.
4. If the agreement is for allotment of a number to a vehicle and authority to display the number plates on a vehicle, subject to Clause 2 hereof:-
  - (1) the Registrar shall allot the number plate to the vehicle;
  - (2) number plates in accordance with the schedule shall be issued to the owner;
  - (3) the owner is hereby authorised for the term to display the number plates on the vehicle;
  - (4) upon expiry of the term, in the absence of an agreement otherwise, the authority to display the number plates shall expire, the Registrar may allot another number to the vehicle and the Registrar at his discretion enter into an agreement with any other person with respect to the allotment or reservation of the number plate;
  - (5) subject to condition 4(7) the owner may by notice in writing and payment of a transfer fee to the Registrar transfer the number plate to another vehicle owned by the owner and the authority shall be varied accordingly;
  - (6) subject to condition 4(7) the owner may by notice in writing
    - (a) if the vehicle is sold authorise transfer of his rights and the authority under this agreement to the vehicle’s new owner (“the transferee”), or
    - (b) relinquish or suspend the right to have the number plate allotted to any vehicle and associated authority and for the balance of the term
      - (i) reserve the number plate, or
      - (ii) authorise the Registrar to enter into an agreement with another person (“the transferee”) with respect to the number plate;
  - (7) notwithstanding any rights of the owner or a transferee under this agreement, any vehicle in respect of which a number is to be allotted or an authority granted must be a vehicle currently registered in South Australia, and the Registrar may require a transferee to pay a transfer fee and may if the number plate is to be reallocated pursuant to condition 4(5) or 4(6) when less than twelve months of the term is unexpired require an agreement for a further term to be entered into for such fee as is then applicable less the fee paid for the unexpired portion of the term;
  - (8) this agreement shall terminate forthwith if the owner transfers the vehicle without notifying the Registrar pursuant to condition 4(5) or 4(6);
  - (9) if this agreement terminates or ceases to apply to a vehicle the Registrar may unless the registration of that vehicle is cancelled reallocate any number plate to that vehicle;
  - (10) transfer fees and fees for reservation and allotment of number plates shall be set or varied from time to time by the Registrar at his sole discretion.

NOTE: Rights given to the owner herein are personal to the owner and may only be transferred as provided herein. If the owner wishes to retain the number plate and authority to display the number plates after expiry of the term a new agreement must be entered into prior to the expiry of the term.

A number plate or a vehicle with number plates which has been recorded as being lost or stolen will not be transferred or reissued to a new owner unless the new owner has been made aware that the number plates may be subject to Police enquiry.

It is an offence to drive a vehicle with a number plate supplied pursuant to this agreement if this agreement has expired.
